Dear Friends,

I have forgotten the number of times my sister and I were told that you do not ask for anything at a meal, you have to wait until you’re asked if you would like some. And then you mustn’t forget to say please and thank you.

These are important lessons for young children to learn as they’re growing up. Sometimes I think that there are some adults who could do with attending a refresher course on saying “please” and “thank you”, or as we used to say “Mind your Ps and Qs”. If we simply say “Give me that” it sounds rude and selfish. But the magic word ‘please’ works wonders. It’s the same with “thank you”. If we forget to say it, it sounds as though we don’t really care about what we’ve been given. So if it wasn’t important enough for us to say thank you, then the person who gave it to us feels that they’re not important to us either.

In the story of Jesus healing the ten lepers, only one leper returned to thank Jesus for healing him. And the one who returned was a Samaritan, a foreigner, the hated enemy of the Jews. But Jesus told him that he had more faith in God than all those who forgot to say thank you.

Harvest festival is a good time to say thank you to God; to thank him for our food and all the other good things that he has given us. It is as important to say thank you to God as it is to someone who has invited us to their party. Harvest reminds us that if it wasn’t for God and the miracle of Harvest, we wouldn’t have anything at all to eat. Harvest teaches us not to be self satisfied, because in spite of all our scientific and technological advances, we are still dependent upon God. Harvest also tells God that we do not take him for granted, but we love him because he is so kind to us.

If you’ve got to mind your Ps & Qs when speaking to family and friends, it may be a good idea to mind them also when talking to God.

May God bless you all.

Your priest and friend,

Edward Ward

FROM THE EDITOR

I have recently received a batch of wonderful old postcards and photographs from Mr John Chetwynd-Talbot who has been having a clear-out! A lot of them are of our house in the early years of the 20th century, but some are of other views and I thought you would enjoy seeing them on our front cover. The top two on the left are postcards of Edgmond Village, probably pre-WW1. The top one is a view of the High Street from the Church; the old houses on the left have since been demolished. The other view is, I think, from the bottom of Stackyard Lane. Below that is a postcard picture of Barnfield Cottage and on the right is allegedly a photo of Edgmond Old School House.

There was some debate over the old picture printed in the last edition of this magazine; I do thank the Revd John Alford, a former curate of Edgmond, for his phone call suggesting it might be a picture of Pipers Row cottages (now demolished) at the end of School Lane. Others think it might be a view of Tibberton rather than of Edgmond. The jury is still out!

The next edition of the Parish Magazine and Village News will be for the month of November 2013 and the deadline for contributions is Sunday, 6th October. Please deliver your copy in good time to me at the address on the inside front cover - or you can email it to me at sarajanetaylor@yahoo.co.uk. Your reports, news, articles and comments will be very welcome. Do remember too that I’m always delighted to receive your photos (preferably by email), especially ones of people, places and events which take place in and around our villages.

HOLIDAY SERVICES

Many thanks to all those who conducted the services during the summer holiday period. We are very grateful to them because without our lay ministers it would be extremely difficult to hold services in our six churches every Sunday.

THE WORLD’S BIGGEST COFFEE MORNING

Macmillan Cancer Support are holding their annual World’s Biggest Coffee Morning on Friday September 27th. There will be a Macmillan Coffee Morning in St Peter’s Church on that day from 10.30 am to 12.30 pm. Admittance £2. This is an opportunity to meet for a chat, a cup of coffee, a slice of delicious homemade cake, and at the same time support a very worthwhile charity which gives invaluable help when it is needed. Everybody is invited to come along.
HEREDITARY FREEMAN OF BRIDGNORTH

It was mentioned in the July magazine that I was to be admitted as an Hereditary Freeman of the Borough of Bridgnorth and I can confirm that on July 26th, during a ceremony held in the ancient Town Hall of Bridgnorth in the presence of the Mayor and Councillors and other Freemen, my name was added to the Roll of Freemen.

My mother’s family (the Foxalls) have been Hereditary Freemen of Bridgnorth since at least the 17th century (if not earlier), but it was only the men who could be made Freemen. However the law was changed about two years ago which meant that the right could also be claimed through the female line. My maternal great-grandfather had been admitted as a Freeman but my grandfather was unable to, as he was one of the first men from Bridgnorth to be killed in the First World War and my mother was his only child. So it is only now that I can claim the right.

Freemen of the Borough were, until the Parliamentary reforms of the late 19th century, the only people eligible to vote in a Parliamentary Election for the two MPs for the Bridgnorth Constituency, as well as vote for the Town Council, the two Bailiffs and then the Mayor who replaced them in 1835. There were certain other ancient rights granted by King John such as being free from all tolls throughout the country; being able to have your corn ground into flour at the King’s Mills in Bridgnorth (it is reported that my great grandfather turned up one day in the 1930s at the CO-OP Dairy, which was on the site of the mills, demanding they grind his corn); you can erect a stall under the Town Hall on Market Day free of charge; and you cannot be arrested for being drunk in the High Street (I believe that my great grandfather found this one very useful). And of all the ancient rights only the last two can still be claimed.

I recognize that being a Freeman no longer carries the importance it once did, but it is still an ancient privilege to be admitted to the Guild, and it is one that can be handed on to succeeding generations.

Edward Ward
BEST WISHES FROM THE CATHEDRAL CONGREGATION

On Sunday July 28th it was my turn as a Prebendary to preach in Lichfield Cathedral. It was a little nerve-wracking for in the congregation, apart from two Bishops (Wolverhampton, and Gloucester) and various active Diocesan Clergy, there amongst the retired clergy was one of my predecessors, Prebendary John Taylor, who was looking very well. In his own inimitable style he sends his best wishes to Edgmond and to all those who are still alive and remember him.

HARVEST FESTIVAL

Harvest will be celebrated at Edgmond on Sunday October 6th and the main service will be 10.30 am Harvest Family Communion, during which children can bring their Harvest Gifts up to the altar. This will be followed by the usual Bring & Share Harvest Lunch in the Church, which will start as soon as possible after the service finishes. Gifts of produce to decorate the church may be brought to church on Friday October 4th or on the morning of Saturday October 5th, or may be left at The Rectory. These Harvest Gifts are distributed after the services to those in need.
CHURCH SERVICE SURVEY

Thanks to all those from Edgmond who returned their Church Survey Forms. The results have made some interesting reading and will be presented at a PCC Meeting.

ALL SOULS' DAY, NOVEMBER 2nd

This year All Souls' Day falls on a Saturday. There will be a Requiem Communion Service at which we pray for all the faithful departed. If you would like the name of a loved one read out at the altar during this service, please write their name(s) on the sheet of paper which will be provided.

ANNUAL SERVICE OF REMEMBRANCE AND THANKSGIVING

The Annual Service of Remembrance and Thanksgiving at which we remember by name all those who have died during the last year will take place in St Peter's Church on Sunday November 3rd at 6.30 pm. Anybody and everybody who has lost a loved one is warmly invited to this short service.

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 10th

The Remembrance Sunday Service will take place at 10.50 am on November 10th in St Peter's Church. This means that there will be NO 10.30 am Eucharist that Sunday. During this service the names of The Fallen of both World Wars and subsequent conflicts will be read out, and wreaths will be laid at the Lectern which is the Second World War memorial. This service is for the whole of the community of Edgmond, and we hope that the Uniformed Groups and villagers of all ages will be able to attend this important community service.

ARMISTICE DAY, NOVEMBER 11th

On Armistice Day, Monday November 11th there will be a short service at 10.50 am at the War Memorial in the High Street. Everybody is welcome to come to this service.

Cassandra and Estella Supple doing their bit for Edgmond by cleaning the War Memorial area in August.
ST PETER’S CHURCH CHOIR

For over 150 years St Peter’s has had a very strong musical tradition with a large church choir. Over the years the choir has sung services in Lichfield Cathedral and in the RSCM Festivals. We are extremely fortunate still to have a large choir of such quality from a small village. In the time of Prebendary John Taylor there was a waiting list for young people to join the choir, especially from St Peter’s Church School. Unfortunately it appears that we can no longer rely on the pupils or parents of the Church School to support the Church Choir or really anything else.

If we look at all the well known singers, Aled Jones, Charlotte Church, Katherine Jenkins, and also famous opera singers, they all started their careers singing in their local church choir. And interest in choirs is being stimulated by the television programmes about choirs.

The commitment to the church choir is small, there is a rehearsal on a Thursday evening and the main service at 10.30 am on a Sunday, with singing at the occasional extra services. And there is a payment for singing at weddings. Anyone, young person or adult, who is interested please contact Dr Colin Brown (Director of Music) 550164, or the Rector.

Mothers’ UNION
Christian care for families

On Thursday, 10th October we will be holding an Autumn Lunch. This will take place in St Peter’s Church, Edgmond at 12.30 pm for 1.00 pm, at a cost of £5.

EDGMOND VILLAGE HALL NEWS
The recent Village Hall AGM was well attended by our outgoing Committee with one member of the general public in attendance. The new Committee of 8 elected trustees and 4 representative trustees all signed up for another year. Our Chairman is Tim Gibbs, Vice Chairman is Helen Turner, Treasurer is Matt Partridge and Secretary is Paula Doherty. If you would like to read the full Trustees’ Report it is available on the website. A potted version follows:

The Village Hall continues to play a central role in the community by providing a base for the Scout Group, Brownies & Guides, Toddler Group, WI, Mothers Union, Karate Club, Snooker Club, Parish Council, French Conversation class, Creative Writing class, Fighting Fit Combat Sports Club, Zumba Gold and Tai Chi.
Bookings for parties and fundraising events have increased this year from 19 in 2011/12 to 27 in 2012/13. We have also become quite popular as a venue where bands and dancers can practice.

In October 2012 we hosted a Murder Mystery Night with The Shawbury Players. In March 2013 we welcomed the satirical comedy group Three Men in a Bow Tie.

The Village Hall was proud to support the Parish Council organised Portrait of a Parish exhibition over the Diamond Jubilee weekend of 2nd & 3rd June 2012. We were also the base for the Diamond Jubilee Treasure Trail and Open Gardens event on 3rd June, doing a roaring trade in tea and cake on a particularly wet day.

The Steering Group set up to look at options for the future of the Village Hall completed its consultation of users groups and the community during the year. The final report will be used as the basis for a Feasibility Study of future options for the Hall. The Committee has agreed to employ the expertise of a local architect to produce a Feasibility Study. This will then form the basis of an exhibition in the Village Hall which it is hoped will help to drive forward this project as more people contribute their ideas and opinions.

As the Village Hall income is less than £25,000 there is no requirement by the Charity Commission to have the accounts independently examined. However the trustees did accept an offer to have the accounts checked this year and no significant irregularities were highlighted. We would like to thank Peter Wright for his help with this. More information on the accounts is available on the Charity Commission website.

Thanks go to everyone (and their partners/spouses) for giving so much of their time to run the Village Hall. Many thanks also to our caretaker and to all other individuals who have contributed to the running of the Hall. Thanks also to HAU who have cut the grass on the field for so many years and to Mick Swinnerton for cutting the front hedge.

Tickets are now available for the latest Shawbury Players Murder Mystery event - ‘Dead Ever After’ on 19th October. There will be a licensed bar available and a fish & chip supper - all for just £12.

A new Total Body Conditioning class started in July. The tutor is very flexible on how much or how little you do, so do go along and see if this is the class to help you get just a bit healthier this autumn. Wednesday mornings at 9.30am - give Catherine a ring on 01952 840383 or 07880 754 048. Only £4 a session.

News and Reports from Edgmond Parish Council
www.edgmondparishcouncil.co.uk

We are fortunate to live in such a lovely Parish with few problems of antisocial behaviour. However, one issue that keeps cropping up is the problem of dog fouling. Most of us just cannot understand why someone feels it is acceptable to leave their pet’s mess on the pavement, grass verge or footpath (it’s just as nasty when you tread on it on a public footpath as it is on a pavement) however, some people have still not got the message. If you are aware of any owner who is not picking up after their dog then you can leave a message for the dog warden on 01952 384384. He will visit the owner and discuss the matter first before going in with anything more official. Even if you can only report a pattern of dog fouling activity, the dog warden can still investigate. Please help us keep our Parish clean and safe.

If anyone would like to organise a litter pick then the Parish Council can provide the necessary equipment.

As the nights draw in, please let the Parish Clerk know of any street lights that are malfunctioning so we can have them repaired as soon as possible.

The next Full Council Meeting will be on 11th November.

If you want more information about the Parish Council or the website please contact the Parish Clerk, Katrina Baker.

NEWPORT (SHROPSHIRE) U3A

Meetings of the Newport, Shropshire branch of the University of the Third Age are held on the third Tuesday of the month at the Royal British Legion Club, Audley Road, Newport. The next meeting will take place on October 15th at 2.00 pm when the speaker will be Jane Chadwick, WYCE (Self-sustainability support charity in The Gambia). Admission: £1. Visitors welcome.

Since the inaugural meeting in April the membership of the branch has grown to over 180. There are now more than 20 interest groups up and running. Aimed at retired or semi-retired people, the groups offer opportunities to meet lively and active persons.

NEWPORT LIONS – PROSTATE CANCER AWARENESS EVENT

Newport Lions are holding their second Annual Prostate Cancer Awareness Event on the evening of Monday 7th October 2013 at Cosy Hall in Newport. Men over 50 years old are invited to attend and give a small blood sample for the purpose of PSA analysis. It is hoped that 300 local men will attend this event. Consultant urological surgeon Mr David Baxter-Smith will be in attendance and give his informal and informative presentation on prostate cancer.

Lions clubs nationally are showing increasing interest in such events. Reading Lions recently held their first event when over 500 men attended. Kingswinford & Stourbridge Lions held their second event in April and interest is being shown at Newbury, Coventry and Malvern. Bridgnorth Lions are planning their fifth annual Prostate Cancer Awareness Event this autumn.

At the 2012 event in Newport 150 local men gave a small blood sample taken by trained phlebotomists. The blood samples were then sent to the pathology laboratory at Coventry & Warwickshire University Hospital for analysis to determine PSA levels. Consultant urological surgeon Mr David Baxter-Smith has heard from all 12 Newport men who were sent “Red” letters following Newport Lions Club’s 2012 Prostate Cancer Awareness Event. Eight have since been diagnosed with Prostate Cancer and following treatment many of these men can now be considered cured.

For more details please contact pete.sterling@virgin.net or visit Newport Lions at their business meeting on the first Tuesday of the month at The Lion, Edgmond.

There are no two ways about it: if you love the Lord, you’ll love people and lay down your life (i.e. comforts, time or plans, etc.) for them. Loving when you least feel like it and they least deserve it is when you love like God.

A ten-second sermon you cannot forget: Jesus first
Others second
Yourself last.

REGULAR TERM-TIME ACTIVITIES AT EDGMOND METHODIST HALL

At the Art Exhibition at the end of June, several people commented that they didn’t know what went on there, and, indeed, some wondered if the exhibition was the first time the Hall had opened its doors in recent months! So, we thought we had better publicise the classes etc, and the tutors/leaders were all supportive of the idea.

KYNNERSLEY VILLAGE HALL NEWS

Hello there,
We are the new committee for the Kynnersley Village Hall: Chairman – Neil Young, Secretary – Sarah Blagden, and Treasurer – Joanne Leech. Other members include Hayley Jay, Adrian Jacks, Alison Mennell, Mel Randles, Harry Gregory, Khadine Rogers, Judith MacPherson, Lee Picken-Simmons and Angie Young.

Your Hall
We want to make it your Village Hall and help you to have some fun. How about holding a family party or bringing your neighbour to one of our events? Perhaps you fancy line dancing; we'll organise what you want.

Join In
If you have any ideas for events or think the Village Hall should be involved in something you enjoy, how about putting a note in the Village Hall post box by the door. We are putting together a diary of events for the year so now is the time to join in!

Help Out
If you can do something to help we can keep costs down and get more people involved. Would you call bingo once a year if we organised it? How about baking us a cake to sell or getting us fit!

Call me any time on 07830 392516 for a chat; if I can’t answer leave a quick message and I’ll call you back. Email kynnersley@gmail.com. Many thanks and hope to see you soon.

Neil Young (for the committee)

Bookings: kynnersleyvillagehall@yahoo.co.uk or phone Khadine on 07790 396237.

MARY GALE-VAMBE

The Methodist Church in New Street, Wellington was full of people from all over the country, the world, and from all varieties of life for the Funeral Service of Mary Gale-Vambe, which was a sign of the full life which Mary had led.

Mary was born in Horton, the only girl of three children born to Joseph and Florence Gale (she had two brothers, Charles and Peter). She attended St Lawrence’s School, Preston and then Wellington High School for Girls. She first started working in the Sales Dept of GKN Sankey, where she continued to develop her love for amateur dramatics by joining their Dramatic Group. Her love of teaching and for young people had already become apparent as she was a Sunday School Teacher at Horton Chapel and when that closed she went to the Methodist Chapel in New Street, where she continued to produce and take part in their annual pantomimes. She did much youth work at both local and county levels and conducted services in many local chapels. And it didn’t matter where she went, what she did, or who she met, Mary never forgot her roots. Recently she had been visiting St Lawrence’s School to talk to the present pupils about her school life.
In 1962 Mary attended a college in Surbiton for a year and then went to the Teacher Training College in Tottenham for 3 years. She taught in a mixed secondary school in Camden Town for two years and then did a course on teaching children with learning difficulties. For 13 years she taught physically handicapped adolescents, including teaching them swimming. It was at this time that she began to organise school trips down to Shropshire when she would persuade the local inhabitants to look after the children in their own homes.

All who knew Mary knew that she held very strong views and wasn't averse to publicly stating them. She was a member of CND and she hated anything that divided humans, either in the churches or in everyday life. So she was a staunch member of the anti-apartheid moment. It was at one of these meetings in 1964 that she met her future husband Lawrence.

While she was doing all this she was also studying for an advanced diploma in teaching physically handicapped children, and followed that with a BA degree from the Open University.

In 1980 she and Lawrence moved to Rhodesia (now Zimbabwe). Here she threw herself into voluntary work, setting up a Cheshire Home for young adults; a welfare organisation to raise money to pay school fees for adolescents who were denied education because of their poverty; she worked at the Jirus Jiri Home for handicapped teenagers; and also taught young Africans to swim in her own swimming pool. On top of all this Mary also led a busy social life meeting all sorts of people, including members of the Royal Family, and was invited to a private meal with Prince Philip.

Unfortunately she had to return home because of ill health and for the last 13/14 years she suffered from renal failure which curtailed some of her activities. For most of those 14 years she drove herself to the Renal Unit at the RSH three times a week for dialysis, until the unit at the PRH was constructed and she continued to drive herself there.

Mary had often said that she would love to see The Lion King, so when it came to Birmingham Katherine bought some tickets, and although Mary's health was now rapidly deteriorating she managed to see the show and thoroughly enjoyed it. A week later, having achieved all that she wanted to do, aided by her strong faith in Jesus as her risen and living Lord and friend; and in the knowledge that death is not the end of everything but only another stage in our life; she was able to relax and let herself be taken into the gentle and loving hands of the One she had worked for all her life.

We offer our deepest sympathy to all of Mary's family, and especially to her husband Lawrence, her brother Peter, her niece Katherine, and sister in law Thelma.
AND FINALLY …

Father Peter Green SSC, a retired priest formerly in the Diocese of Lichfield, has been reviewing some films that might be of special interest to an Anglican Film Club! Here are some of his suggestions:

On Her Majesty’s Secret Surplice
Reservoir Dogcollars
A Quantum of Chalice
The Silence of the Lambeth Conference
Pulpit Fiction
Dial V for Verger
Saturday Mitre Fever
The Purple Shirt of Cairo
Once Upon a Time in the Vestry
Seven Deadly Synods
Steeples in Seattle
Evensong of the South
Raging Papal Bull
Some Like it Lukewarm
Basic Intinct
Private Ryan
Lock, Stock, and Two Christmas Carols
A Room With a Pew
12 Slightly Frustrated Men
RochetMan
Vertigo (specially for Evangelicals)
McVicar
Alien vs. Precentor
The 40 Year Old Verger

And more specifically for Anglo-Catholics:

101 Dalmatics
The Third Maniple
Show Boatboy
The Charge of the Acolyte Brigade
Incense and Sensibility
There’s still time for you to buy your tickets now for TADLOP’s next production – The Wizard of Oz – which will be at The Place, Oakengates from 9th to 13th October. Call the Box Office on 01952 382382.
