Please pray for

Our brothers and sisters in Christ in the six parishes of our benefices and our churches be places of welcome to all.

The students, staff and chaplaincy at Harper Adams University.

The local farming community and for those who work on the land throughout the world.

All who are affected by the fires in Australia. For those who are working hard to save lives and homes and those who have lost their homes.

World leaders that they may work together to strive for justice and peace and commit to caring for the planet.
